MEDCO

TURTLE CREEK

COLONIAL MANOR

GIRLS CLUB

CONCERTS

One of our many projects is visiting nursing homes.
We visit, sing, and have parties for homes such as Medco, Luth Creek, Colonial Manor, and Bowling Green Manor.

Here Vickie Rukus
and Sarah Snider sing at Colonial Manor.

One of our fun projects is one with the APO's.
Here we fold, staple, label, and mail the College Heights Herald.

Another project is our craft hours.
Actives Sandy Mettling,
Kerdy Portinger, Susanne
Haynes, and Vickie Dukes make favors for nursing homes.

Pledgeship Begins!

As pledge mom Pam Oglesby explains the pledge policy, you can hear her say, "Pledgebooks must be worn at all times!" Yes, that's what she said!

Pam and assistant pledge mom Sue Ann Murray recruit pledges at registration.

Here's the Sigma pledge class just after their Big Sis-Little Sis party.

Now the Sigma pledge class is initiated and have become active members of NSC.

Pledges Linda Lusk, Johnn Rogers, and Barbie Manning anxiously wait to see what the actives have planned for them.

Pledge Annette Vick is in the spotlight (and hamming it up!) waiting to find out who her big sis is.
Poor Boots!!

Throughout pledgship, many projects are done. Here on display are pledgebooks, good deed paddles and Big Sis-Little Sis projects. All of the actives were proud of the pledges' many accomplishments.

Emcee Annette "John Wayne" Vick and Beth "Karloff" Ruby read award nominations while Linda Gish assists.

Debbie Mayes pauses for a commercial.

After a 10 week pledge period of conferences, signatures, pledge books, and pledge pins, new girls were initiated and became active members.

Spring Formal

ΑΦΩ ΓΣΣ
Spring Formal
April 9, 1977

President Susanne Haymes
congratulates our new King, Jim Appling. Jim's an APD and a senior this year.

King Jim Appling with APO Sweetheart Debbie Mayes

Everyone had fun at Spring Formal, but Phyllis Cottrell and 1976-77 King David Stokes show that some had more fun than others!

CAMP WINNATASKA
BIRMINGHAM

In March, several sisters went to Birmingham, Alabama to our regional conference. Those attending were Susanne Haynes, Debbie Bailey, Cathy Ashby, Vickie Dukes, Debbie Mayes, Cynthia Strain, Cheryl Owens, and advisor Rose Davis. Here Susanne leads the crafts workshop.

Springtime means time for softball, and that means Gamma Sigs vs. APO's once again.

AN INVITATION

APO Kent Young is up to bat while Gamma Sig Beth Ruby catches. As usual the APO's got us again, but there's always next year!!

Martha Floyd and Rose Davis serve refreshments at tea
given by Blue Grass Alumni.

Attending the meeting were alumnae Jo Self Smith and Rita Greish.

Holidays are always a special time for us, especially when we have someone like David Stokes for a King and a friend. To Gamma Sig, David will always be very special and very loved.

HAPPY VALENTINE'S DAY

I thought you deserved some flowers and candy so ^{here} it is. I hope everyone of you has had a great valentine's day - Women like you really deserved it.

I have something I found the other day that seems true a lot of times - a definition of Woman. A creature whom God made beautiful that man might love her; and unreasonable that she might love man.

It seems to fit you - you're really beautiful people and it sure seems that you give me a lot of love for no apparent reason.

Thanks for everything !!

Love,
David

Another friend. Dennis Kolb remembered us on the first day of spring.

"Spring Love"

As it is forming, into Spring,
I awaken with, the birds that sing.
We all begin, to show our love,
as if we were, that white Peace Dove.

With the weather as nice, as it can be,
I often wonder, just what I see.
I can see the present, I saw the past,
I wonder why, this love won't last.

Through out this poem, I've shown and told, about the love for spring, that I hold.
This poem I send, especially to you,
I hope you see, Spring Love as I do.

Mjn.

Isn't it nice to be in love!

Notes

Nancy!
It's T-shirts!

I'm glad to see all the pledges here tonight and wish them good luck this last week. I'd also like to thank David for all he's done for us this year and wish everybody a good time at spring formal. God be with all of you always and take care.

Sue Ann

Don't Vickie cute?

Announcement

I will give lessons on how to get "hunks" to take you out to spring formals and such - beginning next week - Bode Trailer park.
$5 an hour - Signed,
Debbie Bailey

Dear President:

Roses are red,
Violets are blue,
Thank the good Lord,
Most people don't drive like you.

Much love,
P

Happy Valentines Day

And more notes!

I'd like to thank Vickie for the pledge-active material.

And

How was the punch
Nancy?

I'm really glad to be here tonight to see all of my sisters.
Boy, it's really been a long time!
I just couldn't resist visiting my class. Hope everyone had a good Spring break. I know I did. Thank you for everything, Cathy.

Patsy

P.S. I really appreciate Kennis' poem.

Hello sisters,

I wish everyone could have attended Regional with us.
It was a really well planned meeting. We learned a lot about our sisters and a lot about the sororities we didn't know. One of the most exciting things that happened was when Nancy was pushed into the lake by H.P. (Swanne).

Love,
Cathy J
